

Examining the Integrity of Competitive Sports from a Legal Standpoint:
Match-fixing, Match-throwing, and What can be done about it
JSLA (Japan Sports Law Association) Annual, No.20, 2013

CONTENTS

Keynote Address

What does “Integrity” in Elite Sports mean? :Associated with Match
Fixing, Apathetic Games and Fairness ----- Koichi KIKU [6]

Reports

Summary of the Present and Developing International Debate concerning Legal Issues on Integrity in Sport (including: Match-Fixing related to Sports Betting; Not Using Best Efforts to Win Matches; and Intentionally Throwing Matches)
----- Takuya YAMAZAKI [42]

Invited Article

Integrity Issue of Professional Sumo with a Focus on Match-fixing
----- Koichiro MOCHIZUKI [53]

Reports

How to achieve integrity?: Programme for improvement of management capability in Asian football ----- Kaita SUGIHARA [73]
How to achieve integrity?: The Current Situation of Activities about Breaking Ties with Crime Syndicate in Japanese
Professional Sports World ----- Taisuke MATSUMOTO [82]

Summary of Symposium [88]

Articles

Drug Problems in American Sports: Legal issues and labor relations in MLB
----- Keiji KAWAI [108]

The Protection of Rights for Athletes under the Doping Control
----- Takao OHASHI, Koichiro MOCHIZUKI [128]

The Necessity of laying down guidelines for coaching sports to children:
Referring to the world trends and the child protection system of sport organizations in Britain ----- Katsumi MORI [149]

Appeal and Report of Symposium

The Appeal for “Extermination of violence and violation of human rights in sport”
----- Yoichi INOUE [166]

The Report of “Symposium on protecting athlete’s dignity”----- Masaki SAKAIDA [171]

Sport Arbitration Report / Yuri YAGI, Norihide ISHIDO, Takeo NISHIWAKI

ISBN 978-4-87168-519-1 ¥4286 E 定価 4500 円 (本体価格 4286 円+税)

法的観点から見た競技スポーツの Integrity
— 八百長、無気力試合とその対策を中心に —

日本スポーツ法学会年報第20号

2013